

1 Delegate Storm. Do you rise to speak in favor or against 2 the amendment?

3 DELEGATE STORM: In favor of the amendment, but 4 I would like to make one little point of personal privilege.

5 THE CHAIRMAN: You may proceed.

6 DELEGATE STORM: Mr. Chairman, there is one
7 among us who is so sensitive to the feeling of others that 8 although he never should have been feeling himself, I am
9 afraid he is a little sensitive, too; and I would say
10 there are 141 of us here who have probably been guilty 11 at one time or another of being a little discourteous to 12 the rest of them, but there is one that hasn't been, and 13 I would like to, without meaning to rebuke anyone, I would 14 just like to reaffirm the absolute perfect decorum of the 15 gentleman who sits between and stands between the two 16 flags up front.

17 Now, my point on this particular amendment, I 18 would like to mention that if this had been adopted in its 19 original form, I am glad the Majority is going to change,
20 but if it was adopted in its original form, the General
21 Assembly would have been faced with an absolutely impossible
